Mukhtaran Mai in Islamabad

By Shakeel Anjum

ISLAMABAD: Mukhtaran Mai, the gang rape victim, reached Islamabad Monday late evening, sources confirmed.

Nelofar Bukhtiar, Adviser to the Prime Minister, when contacted said that Mukhtaran Mai has come to discuss about PC-1 of Mukhtaran Mai Crisis Centre which was being finalised. She said that Mukhtaran Mai was state guest and living here in Islamabad and she was free to move everywhere. She said that security and car for her movement have been provided to her from the government.

Nelofar strongly disagreed with the allegation that Mukhtaran Mai was taken to Islamabad forcibly, saying that she regularly came to Islamabad to discuss about her project. Nelofar Bakhtiar said that funds for the development of Mukhtaran Mai Crisis Center have been allocated in the current fiscal year.

Responding to a question Nelofar said that Mukhtaran, during the meeting with her, expressed disappointment for putting her name in Exit Control List (ECL). She said that she would try to remove her name from ECL and she would be cleared positively.

Former HRCP chairperson Asma Jahangir, however, when contacted claimed that the government had lied to parliament in saying that Mukhtaran Mai is not under house arrest. She challenged the government to produce her before an inter-parliamentary committee so that the truth may be determined. She further claimed that Mukhtaran has been forcibly brought to Islamabad and being kept her almost in detention.
